DAY FOUR – Morning Tour & Lunch Option 	THE MARVELOUS “ENCHANTED FOREST” & AIRBOAT EXPEDITION 25,000 years ago & 12 miles west of the current Atlantic Ocean lies an ancient shoreline of Florida, and on its cliffs an enchanted forest stands. Your “certified” Eco-guide will narrate en-route and lead the 1hour - 1½ hour nature walk off a desert sand ridge, onto the floor of a real ancient ocean, and then strolling into dense woods we clearly understand why this special place is called “The Enchanted Forest”. The nature walk experience will rekindle the senses! Cool shade will engulf you as you enter another world. Gingerly guided along the dirt path you will experience and learn of 3 unique and distinct ecosystems of Florida. This an easy, educational nature walk filled with beauty, contrasts, and rare species. After the forest portion of the wildlife experience, we head out west to the St. John's River to a 100 year old fish camp in the middle of no-where. After enjoying a brief complimentary sampling of gator tail & soft drink, we then leave for a guided tour of yet another ecosystem, The Central Florida Everglades. Boarding 15 passengers, coast guard approved boats we take off for an exhilarating 30 minute airboat tour. At speeds nearing 40 miles per hour, traveling over land and water, the unique craft will take you, safely, deep into the pristine fresh water swamp. Wildlife is all around you. Each airboat is driven by a Coast Guard Captain & guide Prohibition days it served a double purpose as it was also used as a dock for unloading shipments of bootleg booze. ESTIMATED COST: $95.00 pp – includes transportation and staff LUNCHEON ESTIMATED COST: $55.00 pp
